

Chartered Institute of Library and Information
Professionals

The Library and Information History Group in association with the Historic Libraries Forum and the Cathedral Libraries and Archives Association announce a one-day conference

Parochial Libraries: past, present & future

Monday 26th April, 2010
Great Hall, Lambeth Palace, London.

Speakers

Ven. Dr. WILLIAM JACOB (London) on Clerical libraries and their users

Prof. DAVID McKITTERICK (Cambridge) on Libraries at risk

Dr. DAVID J. SHAW (Canterbury) on Parochial libraries in Kent

PETER HOARE (Nottingham) on Some parochial libraries in the East Midlands

DAVID J. HALL (Cambridge) on Friends' meeting house libraries

GUDRUN WARREN (Norwich Cathedral) on Some parochial libraries in the Norwich diocese

MICHAEL PERKIN (Newbury) on Parochial libraries: post-`Directory'

Dr. ANDREA THOMAS (Reigate) on The Cranston Library, Reigate: the first 300 years

Dr. DAVID KNIGHT (Church Buildings Council) on Conserving parochial libraries

The conference will commence at 10.15 a.m. (Registration from 10 a.m.). A fee of £40 will be charged for members of the LIHG (£50 to non-members), to include lunch and a reception afterwards.

For bookings contact: Shauna Barrett, Events & Membership
Secretary, Subject Librarian (Anthropology), UCL Library Services, University College, Gower St., London WC1E 6BT

Email: s.barrett@ucl.ac.uk