

UC&R 2.0

UC&R Group are now making use of a number of social networking and media sharing resources.

The Facebook logo, consisting of the word "facebook" in white lowercase letters on a dark blue rectangular background.

Facebook is a popular social networking tool that enables you to connect and share with other people. The UC&R Facebook Group is a forum for members and prospective members of the University College and Research Group, a special interest group of CILIP.

How to join

You will need a Facebook account to join the UC&R Group. Log into Facebook – <http://www.facebook.com> and search for UC&R Group. Click on the link 'Join this Group'.

Slideshare is a website for uploading and sharing your PowerPoint presentations and Word documents. UC&R has created its own profile and area on Slideshare enabling the National Committee, Division and its members to share valuable and informative presentation content from seminars, conferences and training events.

<http://www.slideshare.net/UCRGroup>

To upload content onto Slideshare, please contact Christina Lewis.

The Flickr logo, with the word "flickr" in a blue and red font.

Flickr is a website for uploading and sharing your images. UC&R has created its own photo library in Flickr: <http://www.flickr.com/photos/ucrgroup>.

If you would like to up-load and share your photos of UC&R events, seminars and conferences then please contact Christina Lewis