

AGM for 2002 held at the Oxford University Press

A brief AGM was held prior to the visit of the Oxford University Press. The Annual Report from the Chair was circulated which detailed the events held during 2002, which had been successful and well attended. The Committee were thanked for all their hard work over the last year. Farewells were extended to Donald MacKay as he stood down as Publicity Officer and Lynne Harris. New members welcomed were Kim Sherwin (Publicity Officer), Dawn Holland (Committee member) and Nick Hearn (Committee Member). The financial Annual Reports were also circulated and Christine Milne (Treasurer) gave a brief overview of the Section's financial status.
