

Health Libraries Group Conference

The Winter Garden, Eastbourne, East Sussex

10 - 12 July 2006

POSTER SESSIONS

Title	Author/s	From
Spoon full of sugar: evaluating the effects of the Knowledge and Information Centres (KIC) patient information service on its users	Sarah Allen & Liz Fairclough	Guy's and St. Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust
"Research informationist": defining a role	Fiona Beyer	University of Newcastle upon Tyne
Action learning. Did the earth move for you?	Potenza Atiogbe & Rachel Cooke	Surrey and Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust
What do they think of us? How clinical managers view an NHS library service	Pauline Blagden	Portsmouth NHS Library Service
The Clinical Librarian Service at Brighton: developing a role to maximise impact	Amanda Brookman	Brighton and Sussex University Hospitals NHS Trust
Achieving change through mutual development: the role of supported online learning for health and information professionals	Rachel Bury, Lindsey Martin & Sue Roberts	Edge Hill Learning Services
The scientific hybrid library. Towards an integrated service for biomedical users	Luisa De Biagi, Anna-Maria Campanile & Emanuela Cilione	CNR. National Research Council Central Library, Rome
Biomedical database abstract quality: a cost-impact analysis upon NICE guideline development	Michael Corkett & Debbie Pedge	National Collaborating Centre for Women's & Children's Health
Are physicians from Mars and librarians from Venus?	Karen Davies	Loughborough University
Skills training collaboration across the East of England	Lyn Edmonds, Pauline Hockley & Katherine Staples	East of England Health Information Skills Trainers
"Role and status" "Respect and dignity": supporting staff development under Improving Working Lives	Liz Fairclough & Rose Rook	Guy's and St. Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust
Empowering the wider community of health care professionals to use the WWW as a resource for professional information	Ina Fourie & Retha Claassen-Veldsman	University of Pretoria, South Africa
Interpreting the needs of oncology nurses: starting point for suggestions on using the WWW to stay abreast of the professional field	Ina Fourie & Retha Claassen-Veldsman	University of Pretoria, South Africa
A healthcare database training syllabus designed by Leeds Libraries for NHS staff	Nicola Walsh & Pat Spoor	Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
To be confirmed	Natalie Goulden	The Mid Yorkshire Hospitals NHS Trust
EQUIP - Electronic Quality Information for Patients	Sarah Greening	West Midlands Library Services Development Unit
Patient Information Forum (PIF)	Sarah Greening & Mary Last	West Midlands Library Services Development Unit
Clinical librarianship in primary care	Katherine Harrison	Rotherham Primary Care Trust
What the papers say	Mariann Hilliar	Cardiff University
Can Clinical Librarians impact on patient care?	Eileen Hume	Wirral Hospital NHS Trust
Supporting EBP: HE and NHS collaboration across Hampshire	Fran Lamusse	Portsmouth NHS Library Service
Developing an evolving role for information specialists in the BMJ Publishing Group	Andrea Lane	BMJ Publishing Group
1500 guidelines and growing: the UK database of clinical guidelines	Niamh Leonard	Health Sciences Library, University of Sheffield
What do clinicians want from us? An evaluation of Brighton and Sussex University Hospitals NHS Acute Health Care Trust clinical librarian service with emphasis on its future development	Alan Lovell	University of Brighton during project
Chasing the Sun: facing the challenges of global collaboration	John Loy & Julie Smith	Avon and Wiltshire Partnership NHS Trust
Planning for increased collaboration - a case study of CHILL	Frank Norman, Beverley Berry, Tina Craig & Ann Mason	National Institute for Medical Research
Find a library, find a colleague:HLISD, a directory of Health Library and Information Services	Julie Ryder & Matt Stevenson	Julie Ryder Associates

The collaboration between the information professional and the technical analyst in developing "overviews" for NICE Interventional Procedures guidance	Ruth Frankish & Sarah Clarke	NICE
Laying firm foundations for future practice?	Adrienne Speake	Northumberland, Tyne and Wear Strategic Health Authority
Developing a knowledge portal and managed knowledge network for remote and rural care	Fiona Stewart	NHS Education for Scotland, Knowledge Services Group
Tool kits for evidence-based practice	Caroline Storer	Bradford Health Informatics Service
Journey to the Stars	Diane Thompson, Jacqui Smales & Margery Sidell	Hull & East Riding PCTs Library & Knowledge Management Service
Public health practioners online: Do online communities of practice matter to the public health knowledge management agenda?	Trudy Turner	London Metropolitan University
The new face of BIOME	Rob Abbott	BIOME
Clinical Question Answering Services: identifying and meeting the need for specialised training	Andrew Booth, Colin Lynch & Claire Beecroft	ScHARR, University of Sheffield
Clinical Question Answering Services: what users want and what providers provide	Sue Lacey-Bryant & Tim Ringrose	Doctors.net.uk
Clinical Question Answering Services - National coordination and development	Ron Stamp & Sue Lacey-Bryant	Milton Keynes Primary Care NHS Trust, Doctors.net.uk
Clinical Question Answering Services. A national repository for clinical questions and answers	Mark Starr	Update Software Ltd
Discovering user preferences for federated searching on the NHS Scotland e-Library	Sandra Davies	NHS Education for Scotland, Knowledge Services Group
Developing information skills training sessions to support the NHS Knowledge & Skills Framework, evidence-based practice and continuing professional development	Michelle Jenkins	Edge Hill College
Weekly document awareness bulletin	Denise Thomas	Halton Primary Care Trust
Finding articles with British Nursing Index : exploration of an online learning area	Caroline Lynch	Royal College of Nursing